BATH BROTHERS
MAKE STRIKE OF
HIGH GRADE ORELEDGE IS FOUND IN BOTTOM OF SHAFT AND IS TWO AND A HALF FEET IN WIDTH

Special to the Bonanza

MANHATTAN, August 7.—Bath brothers have made a strike of high-grade milling ore in the bottom of their shaft. It pans like it was good for $75 a ton and to these leasers, who have had several mill-ings in the $40 class, it appears to be the best showing they have had.
At present it is two and a half feet across.

The shoot is in a north and south fissure, which is different from the previous occurrence of ore in this lease. Former ones have been simple ore bodies in the hard lime, one above another and found by sinking an incline shaft on the seams and stringers.

A week ago on account of the disabling of their pump they suspended sinking and resumed stoping on the 80-foot level. Incidentally they put some shots into the fissure above the water level at the foot of the shaft and the results were cheering to the leasers and the camp.
They are accumulating a dump of milling ore which most likely will be run before the new pump that they have ordered can arrive and be installed.

Their lease is on the Litigation Hill merger group, adjoining the Earl on the west and the Dexter-Union on the south.

GAMBLING CASES
AT GOLDFIELD ARE BELIEVED UNIQUEUNDER STATUTES OFFENSE PUNISHABLE BY TERM IN THE PENITENTIARY

The arrest of four Goldfield men on a charge of violating the anti-gambling law continues to be a topic of interest, not only in Goldfield, but in other towns in the state, says the Tribune.

Under the statutes the offense charged is a felony and punishable by a term in the penitentiary with no alternative of a fine. If these cases go to trial they will be the first that have been held under similar circumstances since the enactment of the anti-gambling measure.

Convictions under this statute were secured in the district court at Elko, but in that case the defendants were taken in the act of operating a roulette wheel and the evidence produced included gambling devices such as left no doubt as to the nature of the offense. Several months ago at Tonopah the sheriff and his deputies raided a gambling room and arrested a number of men, but these defendants by some means secured a reduction in the degree of the charge from felony to misdemeanor and upon conviction were sentenced to short terms in the county jail.

Officer Marchison of the state police, who made the arrests here, has stated that he has a clear case against the men arrested and that it will be readily proved that there was money in sight on the poker table.

The officers are engaged in summoning witnesses and the accused men will be arraigned for a preliminary examination tomorrow at 10 o'clock.
